

A Summer Get-Away Close to Home - Beachway Park, Burlington

Once a picturesque Indian encampment among the large spreading oaks, Beachway Park is one of the last two remaining sandy beaches along the northshore of Lake Ontario. Today this beach is a popular sunbathing, beach volleyball and family picnic area with a pavilion that provides change rooms, outdoor showers, seasonal concession facilities featuring Scooters Snack Shack and year round washrooms. Amenities at the beach include the pavilion, parking, a pay phone, a playground, and lots of sun, sand and water.

Those looking for a quieter pace can take a leisurely stroll along the beach, exploring the sand dunes and natural habitat near the canal or take in the Burlington skyline at night from the lookout.

Beachway Park is situated along the 23 km of Waterfront Trail in Burlington where riders can travel south to the lift-bridge and canal and along Hamiltons' beachfront to Confederation Park and beyond, west along Burlington Bay to LaSalle Park, the RBG and Hamilton's waterfront parks or east along picturesque Lakeshore Rd to Oakville and the GTA.

Come down to the beach, dip your toes into the lake, build a sandcastle play frisbee and enjoy a bit of paradise, right here in Burlington! For further information contact Tourism Burlington at 1 -877-499-9989 or click on <http://cms.burlington.ca/Page422.aspx>
